

Working with Community Tensions

a six-day course presented by Community Resolve and UWE

- Are you a manager or frontline worker in housing, education or social services?
- Is your job in community safety, schools or the police affected by the competing needs of different cultural groups?
- Are you regularly interacting with disaffected young adults on the edge of gangs or group offending?

This highly interactive and reflective course encourages practitioners and academics to share perspectives and explore:

- The dynamics of community conflicts, and how to anticipate and address them
- Relevant theory and practice from a range of disciplines, including international peacebuilding and psycho-social studies
- Strategic design and evaluation of conflict-related interventions.

“Energising and informative.”

“Well structured and inspiring.”

“Thought provoking; challenging; interesting; has given me real tools I can use in my work.”

Course dates 2010: Thur/Fri Jan 21/22; Wed/Thur Feb 24/25; Thur/Fri Mar 18/19

Course venue: UWE St Matthias Campus, Fishponds, Bristol

Course fees: £500 stat bods / £375 vol orgs / limited bursaries

This course can also be taken as a 30-credit transferable Masters module, as part of UWE’s MSc in Psycho-Social Studies and others (additional fees apply).

For more information on the course or how to enrol, contact hen@communityresolve.org.uk cpss@uwe.ac.uk

University of the West of England